

Purchase tax for distribution boxes

Overview

Packaging supplies that end up in your customer's hands as part of a sale are generally exempt from sales tax. The box you ship a product in, the bubble wrap cushioning it, and the tape sealing it shut all qualify for exemption in most states because they transfer to the buyer along. Sales tax is a transaction tax levied at the point of sale on the final consumer of tangible personal property. This concept is fundamental to understanding tax exemptions for business inputs. Use tax acts as a complementary levy, applying to goods purchased without sales tax for use, storage, or. Businesses incur costs for various packaging materials, from product boxes and bottles to shipping cartons and bubble wrap. For accurate financial accounting and tax reporting, it's important for accountants and SMB owners to understand how to categorize these different packaging expenses. COGS (Cost of Goods Sold) section in the TurboTax programs asks for a number of things. Cost of Purchases - What *you* paid for the product you are selling. Here's what businesses need to know to buy packaging tax-free.
